

EVENT PHOTOS

Mercatura Social

Mercatura Social, organized by Deens PU College on August 31st, brought together schools for a day of creativity, innovation, and competition. Participants from institutions like National Public School (Whitefield), Inventure Academy, New Horizon PU College and many more showcased their talents in a vibrant atmosphere. Events included Build a Logo, Duel of Discord, Caucus, Fusionista, Lost in Lines, CrimeCon, Treasure the Trash, and Melotopia, testing creativity, intellect, and performance skills. Popular food stalls added to the fest's charm. National Public School, Whitefield, won the Overall Trophy for Best Performing School, while New Horizon PU College received the Trophy for Maximum Participation. The event celebrated students' unique talents, fostering skills, connections, and lasting memories.

Hindi Diwas

Hindi Diwas, celebrated on September 14th, honors the rich cultural heritage of Hindi as the official language of India. At Deens PU College, students, guided by Ms. Manasi Naik and Ms. Neeta Goswami, hosted a vibrant event to mark the occasion. The celebration began with a soulful song by the students, creating an atmosphere of unity and pride. A lively dance performance followed, energizing the audience and adding to the festive spirit. The event highlighted the importance of Hindi as a unifying language and a key part of India and cultural identity. It was a meaningful reminder of how language connects us to our roots and traditions.

Gandhi Jayanti

On October 2nd, 2024, the campus of Deens PU College came alive with vibrant ethnic attire as students and staff commemorated Gandhi Jayanti. The colorful display of traditional clothing beautifully reflected India's rich cultural heritage. The day's activities began with a screening of documentary videos showcasing Gandhiji's life, work, philosophies, and sacrifices. Historical footage and interviews with journalists offered profound insights into his ideologies, leaving a deep impression on everyone. In honor of Gandhiji's principles, students actively participated in a campus clean-up drive. The initiative not only beautified the campus but also served as a meaningful step toward community improvement. As the day concluded, students and staff felt a renewed sense of patriotism and responsibility. With smiles on their faces and pride in their hearts, they walked away inspired by the legacy of the Father of the Nation.

The Times conference at Deens Gunjur

The Times Conference, held at the CBSE block of Deens Gunjur, brought together CBSE and PUC students for a thought-provoking session. The guest speaker, Mr. Timothy Franklyn, founder of the National School of Journalism and Public Discourse, shared his inspiring journey of overcoming colon cancer and building a meaningful career. Mr. Franklyn engaged students in a practical activity on elections, helping them understand democratic processes. He emphasized resilience, living with purpose, and contributing to society. The session left a lasting impact, and we look forward to welcoming him again.

— Rashi, PU2 Humanities

"What you think is what you do and what you do is who you are"
-Hrehaan PUI Prefect

Teachers Day

On September 6th, 2024, the students of Deens PU College hosted a heartwarming Teachers Day celebration. After a relaxing day at a resort, the teachers returned to a delightful surprise planned by their students. The event began with a fun-filled game of Pass the Parcel, setting a cheerful tone. PU1 students showcased their talent with a captivating group dance, while PU2 students added charm with solo performances. A few students expressed heartfelt gratitude to their teachers, creating touching moments. The school band, The Tangerines, enthralled everyone with soulful classical music, and an energetic flash mob brought the celebration to life. Teachers joined the dance, sharing joyful moments with their students. The day ended with smiles all around, leaving both teachers and students with memories to cherish and a deeper sense of appreciation for one another.

Karnataka Rajyotsava

Deens PU College celebrated Karnataka Rajyotsava with great enthusiasm, honoring the rich culture and heritage of Karnataka. The event, organized by PU1 and PU2 students, began with a soulful Kannada song, setting a memorable tone for the occasion. The morning assembly was conducted in Kannada, with the pledge and thought of the day translated into English to promote inclusivity and understanding. A student delivered an insightful speech, emphasizing the importance of the Kannada language and the historical significance of Karnataka. The celebration continued with a vibrant dance performance featuring popular Kannada songs, highlighting the state's traditional music and dance forms. Additionally, a skit was performed, showcasing the beauty and relevance of the Kannada language. The program concluded with the singing of the Karnataka State Anthem, written by the renowned poet Kuvempu, leaving everyone filled with pride and a deep sense of unity.

